Academy boosts awareness of the importance of dance

Written by Ellie Rose

Performers from a Chalfont St Peter dance school recently took to the stage to highlight the benefits of dance for children and adults.

Pips Dance Academy performed their 2025 showcase, Pipsicals, at The Elgiva Theatre in Chesham on January 11 and 12.

This year was even more special, as guests from High March School and Chalfont St Peter Infant School dazzled with performance pieces they had put together in after-school clubs.

Taking centre stage on Sunday was Connexions, a fully-funded boys-only dance project for secondary school students. Through the project, Pips is hoping "to boost awareness of boys in dance and hope this is an area that continue to grow".

Audience members praised the "fantastic" show, with one person sharing: "I have been to quite a few dance shows, but this blew me away."

The dance company had a successful showcase

Another shared: "We were choked to see [our daughter] singing her solo in Annie and absolutely wowed by Six where she really went for it."

If you ever want to talk to someone about your wellbeing or worries, feel free to talk to any of our ambassadors who are always here to help. Pippa is our fully trained designated safeguarding lead and our ambassador team know when and how to raise issues with Pippa. If you are unsure who to talk to, head to pipsdanceacademy.co.uk and meet the fabulous ambassador team along with our inspiring teachers.
